

INTELLIGENCE DATA HANDLING SERVICE

Recognising your problem - Information Overload

Mobile phone intelligence data can arrive in many forms. There is no uniform standard format that network providers send their data across in, and they are liable to change month by month. This can make it impossible to keep up with the macros required to cleanse and condense the data into a manageable format for analysis, but it is a task that needs performing.

Providing you with a solution

Servoca Managed Services has the capability to manually condense and manipulate your intelligence data into the format that you want it in. We have trained and vetted staff to give you a fast turnaround, getting the job done quicker and freeing up the time of your highly skilled analysts to perform more pertinent tasks in force.

Why Servoca?

Our database of over 9,000 former police officers, police staff and similar civil and criminal justice professionals is unique and diverse. We have years of experience and expertise in working within the police and criminal justice sector, in many disciplines, and have the resource to assist with all your managed outsourcing needs.

Services available through Servoca Managed Services include, but are not restricted to:

Intelligence Data Handling

Tape Transcription

Independent Investigations

Custody & Detention

Homicide Review

Rape Case Review

Departmental / Structural Review

Policy and Process Review
