

SPECIALIST POLICING RECRUITMENT

The Police Service is facing some of the biggest challenges of resources and resource management in its history. Budget cuts and efficiency savings have already become stock vocabulary and everyday phrases in conversation related to UK police forces. At the same time, numerous warranted officers are tied up with bureaucracy, projects, administration and other activities that in many cases could be outsourced, or carried out by a civilian.

Servoca Resourcing Solutions specialises in working with former police officers, and other members of the public sector, civil and criminal justice fraternity. We have been Involved within police recruitment and services since 2002 and have supplied to over 75% of police forces in England, Wales and Northern Ireland.

Servoca has provided resource domestically and internationally to police forces for operational, strategic, supervisory and managerial roles across the investigative, enforcement, compliance and intelligence disciplines, and can offer a range of additional skills and services that may not reside in-force due to cuts, efficiencies or lack of need on a permanent or ongoing basis.

Skills available through Servoca Resourcing Solutions include, but are not restricted to:

Statement Taking
Surveillance
Holmes II
PNC
Intelligence Officers

Fraud / Financial Investigation
Child Protection
Professional Standards
Scientific Support
Analysts / Researchers

If you know what you are looking for, or would just be interested in examining the possibilities of working with individuals from these types of background on a permanent, fixed term or contract basis, contact Servoca Resourcing Solutions on 0845 073 7800 or visit us at www.servoca-police.com.

